UNITY IS STRENGTH

As per grant condition, all payments will be made directly to the institution where recipients are enrolled.

The PSU would also like to announce PSU's successful nominees of the Cipriani College of Labour and Co-operative Studies (CCLS) in partnership with the Caribbean Congress of Labour (CCL) scholarship, namely:

1. Bro Dean Flowers
2. Sis Brenda Serrano nee Ferguson

The nominees will receive a full tuition scholarship in the August 2021 intake in Labour Studies and Industrial Relations Certificate Program at the Cipriani College of Labour and Co-operative Studies. This program is an online one year, part time Certificate Program. As a condition of having been selected as a successful recipient, these officers will be required to provide one (1) hour of service per week for one year to the Industrial Relations Office (IRO) of the PSU upon completion of the Programme.

The PSU wishes our 2021 Educational Grant recipients and our nominees of the Cipriani College of Labour and Co-operative Studies (CCLS) all the best on their educational journey now and in the future!

Solidarity Forever!
